

2015-2022 Attuning to Your Ascension Connection

Through Wisdom Teacher Sri Ram Kaa & Angelic Oracle Kira Raa

The Blue Starborn speak:

Hello beloved Angels. We gaze at thee with large, bright, luminescent lasers of crystalline light beaming to your heart...From these eyes to your heart. Greetings beloved Angels, beloved masters, beloved brethren. Greetings!

The Expanding Vision of the Many Eyes

Within the presence of the expanded illumination of divine light that is ever present, there is upon you now a marked enhancement that is visible to all eyes who chose to see. Now is time that all eyes are readjusting to feel comfortable with many experiences of vision.

For many in the world of density, in the early months of 2015, and having initiated in the latter months of 2014, there will be a moment within each being when the connection to the luminescent generosity and abundant waves of electromagnetic energy are discovered and felt within.

When that moment occurs, the eyes will shift in many ways. As this shift is first a physical one, we offer to thee ways that the body and the mind are able to relax into the recognition of this connection. When this connection occurs for thee--today, tomorrow, a month from now--it matters not.

It is when the connection occurs that it is beneficial; that within the seed of the divine wisdom, the recognition of this energy has been absorbed so there is not a fear or resistance to this.

So let us first offer to thee a checklist to offer you reassurance of this shift and to assist you to move forward through the next seven years of expanded connection.

The Checklist of Connection

The eyes will carry this energy. The eyes of the body of which there are two, and the eye of the soul of which there is one.

Let us begin by discussing the eyes of the body of which there are two. This is one of the experiences--and in the list that we offer to thee there is no order, we are simply listing.

The First Symptom

As your ability to anchor your ascension energy births with greater expansion, one of the experiences you will tangibly note is the two becoming one. For your form, this will be experienced as the two eyes becoming one eye. This is often experienced in the form of the body an intense or unique headache. There are new pressures in the head, and they come in different ways. They may be sporadic, they may sense an electrical pulse within them. When they arise, the two eyes may feel pressure or pain.

Celebrate! As this is an ignition of your ascended mastership.

There are simply movements of mastery that you can easily use to ease any and all discomfort.

Begin by taking the middle fingers of the hands and hold them as we are now¹. You will first gaze through them, not at them. Notice the golden streams of energy that are coming through the fingertips toward thee. Notice this by gazing through the fingers as we are doing now. Take the middle fingers and bring them in front of the two eyes as you continue to focus straight ahead.

With the two middle fingers pointed in toward the eyes, the golden streams of light are easily received within. Simply hold them here as you breathe and restore yourself to a frequency of ascension.

Then invite these golden streams of light to lift up from your two eyes to your third eye. Overlap the middle fingers, again pointing straight ahead with the eyes. As you experience the golden streams of light at the third eye, gently move the connected fingers up, keeping your gaze straight ahead.

With your eyes open, move your fingers to the area just above the third eye, the area of your Star consciousness. You will feel great heat, expansion and illumination. After you connect with the heat, keeping the fingers approximately an inch away from your skin, lift up keeping the fingers connected. Take in a deep loving breath and then release, and notice the clarity.

Feel the wind of the universe coming through you.

This is the first of the experiences of the eyes in the connection.

Note: The above is the full sequence of the attunement of the eyes.

Allow yourself to practice this gift especially when you are experiencing any of the checklist symptoms.

The Second Symptom

Another experience will be a sense of double or blurry vision. This can come from one eye or two eyes. It does not matter, as there will be a sense of this. Again the practice of bringing the hands up, noticing the rays of golden light emanating from the tips of the fingers then using the middle fingers as we have already described² is a simple and effective way to minimize any adjustment discomfort.

The process we have already described is beneficial in the case of all of the experiences that we give you.

The Third Symptom

You will begin to experience a waterfall of crystalline, silvery, shimmering platinum light. You may notice this out of one eye or both. You may notice this off to the side or straight ahead. You will notice as if there are waves of platinum silvery light waving in front of you.

It may appear as a watery liquid energy because indeed, in your world, it is. It may feel as if it has a harmony to the ears. This is part of the experience of allowing thy, self, to acclimate to this electromagnetic energy, this enhanced vibrational stabilization energy that is a rich component of the ascension energy.

The Fourth Symptom

Another experience is a rich, deep harmony in the ears which may be accompanied by a vision shift and slight pressure in the area of the head. This energy in the ears is actually emanating from the eyes. This is why there is a sense of pressure, and the sense of a hum that is coming forward.

Stabilizing Through the Symptoms

These are the primary physical experiences that will assist thee to understand that the moment of connection has arrived, and they will continue to grow and enhance for the next seven years. As you offer yourself the gift of unification of golden light at the eyes, the third eye, and star consciousness, you will experience greater ease, clarity and stabilization of your ascension process.

This is the first of the sequence of electromagnetic alignments that assist the physical form to both allow and agree to the full illumination of enlightenment.

This opens the energetic support to be lighter, buoyant, and available to lift through the illusion of the densified world.

The Single Eye of the Soul

We wish to share with thee about the single eye of the soul. We hold the hands like this³, the single "I" of the soul. This single "I" of the soul is not the 'I' that expresses in density.

The single "I" of the soul is indeed an eye. An eye. An eye.

We take the "I" and turn it into the eye...an eye of the soul.

² This is referring to the practice that is described in detail on the previous page of this text.

It is a heart that sees all because it is connected with the harmony of the universe.
It is again the single "I" that has become the eye of the heart, the single harmony of the universe.

We offer this sequence of mudras for unifying the eye of the soul, that has become the eye of the heart, that becomes one with the single harmony of the universe.

This is the active presence of all of 2015.

The eye of the soul that has become the eye of the heart that becomes one with the single harmony of the universe.

The energy of these times is inviting you to release words and connect with the energy around thee. As you repeat these mudras the more that you will reveal to thyself and to the universe that your connection is complete.

As the year ahead pulses and moves with great energetic shifts, the vast majority of humanity will seek greater "assistance" to navigate these pulses if they are met with resistance and fear. To embrace these gifts with understanding and energetic acceptance will open a doorway of divine connection that is bringing the blessing of universal illumination.

The Symptoms of Anchoring Illumination

As one that is open to this divine doorway, the experiences that you will confirm your connection is completing are:

Number one: You will be aware and experiencing the physical eyes, the two eyes as they receive. You will experience fullness, perhaps an ache, and then connection. You will notice pressure or the feeling of the tones, and then you will discover more.

Number two: A symptom of this expansionary eye, the "I" that is becoming the eye, is that you will also begin to have a greater precognition of events.

This precognition of events can be as simple as the recognition that the phone is going to ring and knowing who it is. It could be a world event that is suddenly calling to you for no particular reason, and it can be a heightened sense of foreshadowing.

It can be a sense of expansion. The world will begin to respond to these energies through a rise in media manipulation as conjecture. However the energy of greater precognition of events will touch all and grow through 2022.

Number three: It is important to avoid egoic entanglement. When you notice that there is less ego wrapping around the precognition and less need to share with many others, this is also an experience of the quickening of the illumination of the "I" that is becoming the eye...the ever seeing eye.

This energy will reveal itself with greater clarity by the summer of 2015 when many will align according to a belief that is being falsely projected through the need of a collective egoic filter to create a perception of truth.

This powerful lesson will be a wondrous awakening for many and assist to clear the energy fields of Gaia for the next four years when another event of this experience will be attempted.

Number four: Another experience will be the rapid generation of a new body. You will find that the physical form will be finding itself in a new way. For some they will expand, for others they will shrink. For some there will be moments of discomfort, for others there will be longer discomfort.

The need for any and all discomfort is one that can be quickly released as soon as it is recognized.

This is why there will be a rising need for Water! Water! Water!

And to meet this need energetically and physically, water will rise and water will arise.

Embodying the Ever-Present Flow of Your Ascension Illumination

You are the ever-present flow even when all around you is seeking to be hard, boxed, square, stuck. It is important to remember that flow releases the illusion of being trapped.

You are the ever-present flow and the flow of the ascension energy of your planet will continue to expand with rapid and definitive energy from 2015-2022.

Beloved ones, there is only one absolute confirmation of all we share and it is found within your heart. You are a society of brethren that are flowing and expanding now to realign the understanding of society in a world of density form. We are a society that is born of Blue Starborn light and energy, supported and nourished through the crystalline star fields, and ignited through the Benevolent energy of non-interference.

Who are we? We are you as you remember yourself to freedom.

It is the moment to invite your eyes to ignite. To allow your heart to remember itself as the eye of the universe as you reconnect to the universal harmony.

You are the flow, you are the luminescence, and we love you. And so it is.
