*Delivered at TOSA Self-Ascension Center, Antigua, Guatemala, Central America

The Blue Starborn speak:

Hello. There is a great and momentous power in your world now.

And in this great and momentous power there are many who seek to establish new paradigms of power.
There are many who seek to take power or know power or invent power.

Yes. We offer you this word. And the reason that this paradigm of power is so potently in your world now is because you are at the moment of Divine Mastery.

Seven and Divine Mastery

Divine Mastery.

In the moment of Divine Mastery, where you claim your mastery, which is the energy of the seven;
has always been the energy of the seven, and will continue to be the energy of the seven.

The seven. The seven. The seven.

SRI & KIRA

THE MIRACLE OF SERVICE SERIES : 12 STEPS TO ASCENSION

For within this energy of the seven is the mastery of your divine recognition. Within the world that you are existing in now, with which your power is available, there are indeed many masters.

And there are many illusions.

And there are many forms of this power that are here for you and waiting for you; should you... and indeed we offer to you this word... should you, decide. Decide is the word!

Should you decide to claim your power.

Claiming Mastery

You see beloved ones. It is not the question of whether or not you have your power.
It is not the question of whether or not the energy is available.
It is the question of the decision that is before thee and the implementation of the decision that is before thee.

Take a breath...Mastery.

We offer this word to you initially simply for you to be able to scan within your own brain, scan within your own physical-ness, scan within your own sense of being-ness.

Mastery...For indeed the choice has already been made as to how you receive even the energy that is brought forward through this word mastery.... or master.

In the world of great illusion where many of the energies of our world have expanded well beyond the initial experience... well beyond... this experience of mastery has taken on its own sense of limitation and its own sense of constriction. Within the energy of mastery, within the energy of "a master" is where you find the numeric sequence that we offer you. This is known as "the seven".

Seven is a harmony. Seven notes. Seven energies. Seven experiences. In the energy of the seven is the mastery energy. And, in the mastery energy found in the harmonic convergence of your own recognition, is the great power, the power of your own discernment, the power of your own recognition.

SRI & KIRA

THE MIRACLE OF SERVICE SERIES : 12 STEPS TO ASCENSION

And in this experience of claiming your mastery, you will experience everything that is unlike mastery, will you not?

Because within the mastery itself is this limited definition or perception of mastery. And so, if you are judging what a master is, if you have a judgment as to what mastery or master energy is, then indeed you are outside the experience and yet because you are the master, you are having the experience!

Breathe again. We wish to repeat this.

It is because you are a master that you are having the experience that would seek for you to believe you are not.

Breathe again.

The Master and the Novice

Within the realm of the unified stream of all voices of the harmonic energy of crystalline energy that has propelled itself from the divine origins far beyond that which is the perception of the brain you carry now, is this harmony of the seven, this harmony of the master.

In your world, the seven has manifested in many ways and in many times.

And in the mastery of you, in the mastery experience of you, part of this gift is the master allowing the experience of the novice.

Breathe again.

Oftentimes it is within the novice that the mastery is most available.
Oftentimes it is through the recognition, the release of a belief that mastery is an unobtainable goal, that mastery is only for the few who do the certain things, who offer the certain items or steps.
Oftentimes this occurs and it is the novice who has the gift, the blessing, of being able to simply witness.

Witness.

The Experience of Seven

Beloved masters, in the experience of the seven.

In the experience of the experience and we are going to use the word, explosion of seven. In your world now, there is even a congregation so to speak of energies...yes...energies that control the planet that you call G7¹.

It is important to pay attention to this power of seven and the collective energy that it brings forward. For in the collective energy that the energy of seven bring forward, the mastery energy will reveal itself.

The question is how. How?

Is one a master of creating illusion?

Is one a master of creating joy?

Is one a master of creating chaos?

Is one a master of creating love?

For all aspects are mastery.

And yet it is within the definitions of the judgments that exists within your planet now, that all masters are finding themselves again.

And again we say the question... how?

To claim the mastery in a form that is free from all interference energy is to walk through the egoic presence of the definition of a master defined by a world of illusion.

Free yourself...Free yourself...Free your mind.

¹ The G7 (also known as the G-7) is the meeting of the finance ministers from a group of seven industrialized nations.

THE MIRACLE OF SERVICE SERIES : 12 STEPS TO ASCENSION

The Prophet of Destiny: Peace

You are indeed a prophetically profound co-creator!

Each being of divine illuminated mastery co-creates at a level that would rival...equal...Any declared prophet.

You are the prophet of your destiny.

You are the prophet of your mastery.

What is it that you are creating before you now?

And in that creation, is your heart at peace?

Is your mind at peace?

Do you find so much peace within in your interactions in your way of life, in your way of being, that there is no need to project that others need to be doing it differently?

For true peace is the molecule that offers you the silent gift of being the witness, the novice, the master, the one.

To be out of balance with peace is to...in the moment...deny the mastery of your true being-ness.

To be in balance with peace is to be in mastery. It is that simple.

If your mind feels tortured, if your heart feels hurt, if your energy feels congested, then you have forgotten that you are the master.

Somewhere your heart has let go of the great gift of your own prophetic co-creative knowledge and wisdom. Beloved ones, it is the time of seven. And in the time of seven, the choice is at hand to claim mastery through the peace of the journey.

For in the claiming of your mastery in the peace of the journey that has expanded you beyond all time and space, you once again reconnect to all time and space.

Your world now is in a powerful moment of realignment. A tipping point, if we were to offer you language that is popular of your realm now... and in this tipping point of where your world is, the masters are awakening in all forms.

SRI & KIRA

THE MIRACLE OF SERVICE SERIES : 12 STEPS TO ASCENSION

Remember, it only the master that can allow all forms and so some masters are awakening to their mastery of chaos, to their mastery of illusion, to their mastery of negativity.

And in the awakening all masters will co-create and are co-creating.

So where does your energy find its harmony?

Where are your seven tones?

Where is your harmony?

The Blue Crystalline Abode of the Starborn

Beloved ones, gaze up. Gaze up!

Open up your heart, closing the eyes of this world and allow the golden molecules within to gaze up and through the throat, up and through the top of the head, up and through the top of this planet.

All the way up to what you call here the North pole.

SRI & KIRA

THE MIRACLE OF SERVICE SERIES : 12 STEPS TO ASCENSION

And as you gaze above the North pole, you will notice a brilliant blue crystalline city sitting there.
This brilliant blue crystalline city is the divine haven, it is the abode of the Starborn.
It is the abode of many of you who know the Blue Starborn.
And yet it is indeed beyond just the Blue Starborn.
It is a Starborn abode calling out to those who seek peace.

You cannot connect with peace in a world of masters seeking to create anything less than peace, yet you can discover your peace by reaching up, gazing up, keeping your eyes up and gaze up to that area that you call north pole and begin to see the gift of this beautiful blue crystalline city, an abode of great Starborn energies.

For great assistance is here for those who seek to claim the assistance, and great energy is here for those who seek to claim great energy.

In the claiming of the great energy, in the claiming of the great abodes, you will discover more than you could ever recognize.

You will discover beyond this realm. You will discover great recognitions.

Breathe in beloved ones, breathe in.

We lift up our hands and we lift up our hearts, and we lift up the energy of the Starborn ones who have been in this experience of life for many eons.

You are masters. You are masters. You are masters.

And in the recognition of your divine mastery,
the emanation that comes from your pure heart is beyond that which can have a name in this world experience

Gaze up. Gaze up.

SRI & KIRA

THE MIRACLE OF SERVICE SERIES : 12 STEPS TO ASCENSION

And find within the abode of the Starborn...the molecule...the harmony of your divine Starborn essence.

Anchor Peace: Know Love: Experience Joy

Beloved ones, as a great master, you are visible. You cannot hide. And yet, many feel they can hide. They cannot stay hidden, they simply do not do. Yet every action is a doing-ness.

Every word is an action and every molecule of your divine being has been brought together in a co-creative cohesive arrangement to support the energy of your mastery now.
You are limitless.

You are timeless, and you are not as dense as your mastery would like you to believe you are.

You are available to move forward through great eons of time and space now. And in this availability, there is great assistance for those who seek reunification.

In the energy of reunification is peace.

Begin with peace.

For when you anchor peace, you will know love.

And until you anchor peace, you are playing with love.

And once you anchor this peace, so that you then know love, you will experience joy.

Anchor peace...Know love...And then experience joy.

These are not convolutions of the mind. They are the energies of the true master. They are a harmony. Powerful groups of seven will be empowering their mastery greatly on your planet in the next what you might call months and over the next several what you call years.

You are just as powerful. You are not without. You indeed are with!

Your great abundant nature streams forth form the energy of the peace, from the novice who remembers they are the master, and the master who will always remember they are the novice.

Gaze up beloved ones, for the blue energy supports thee.

The crystalline abode of the divine Starborn that sits above what you call a north pole is not static, just as your north pole is not static.

Your north pole now is drifting and is drifting at a rate that it has never drifted at before.

It is pulling toward a great world many in your world call Russia.

It is tipping as they say.

And this abode will tip with it, will stay with it.

SRI & KIRA

THE MIRACLE OF SERVICE SERIES : 12 STEPS TO ASCENSION

*Great starborn energies are being invited to support the shift.
Your support and your love comes from the novice remembering they are a master and the master remembering they are a novice.*

*For together they meet in the harmony of peace.
Peace cannot be demanded.
Peace cannot be conjured.
Peace cannot be created through killing each other in ways of a world of density.*

Peace can only be called forth from the central sun of the central heart of the central molecule of your divine energy.

*We love you beloved ones and we who come to you today are a Starborn collective of divine energies present in every being on your planet, for you all carry the molecule of this energy within thee.
Simply ignite it and find yourself in the stars again, for you have never left and indeed you are here again.*

*We love you and we are grateful for your presence.
Connect with us as we connect with you.*

And so it is.
